

Announcement

ONLINE COURSE:

Drug Development for Rare Diseases: Where are we now, how did we get here and where do we want to be?"

4th – 5th November 2021

GENERAL INFORMATION

- The registration form should be completed on-line and submitted with your curriculum vitae in English.
- Fees will be €150 for academic and €225 for business participants.
- Candidates will be selected based on their background, experience and the geographical breakdown.
- The scientific organising committee will review the applications and select participants.
- Selection decisions will be announced within 5-10 days following the deadline for registration.
- An application will be made for local CME accreditation.
- Access to all live course recordings for 30 days.

To Register
Click Here

Course Summary

Orphan drug legislation has led to an explosion in the number of drugs being licensed for rare diseases, but has it been successful in its aim of making effective treatments accessible to patients affected by rare diseases?

Target Audience

Adult and paediatric physicians who already have clinical experience in the care of patients with LSDs and other rare diseases; professionals involved in the development, regulation and reimbursement of orphan drugs.